

PLACES TO EAT IN CARENTAN

Normandy is said to be the gastronomic heart of France. Famous for its cheeses, sea food, galettes and crepes as well as its Calvados and Moules Frites.

There are 5 restaurants and 2 pizza pasta places. You are advised to check in advance the opening times. The majority close by 10 pm and change their hours for bank holidays.

Pere Alta on the Harbour front. Two floors with the ground floor decorated with forties memorabilia.	Open Hours Open every day 12-2.00 & 7 to 9pm
L'escapade. Opposite the train station. Only open in the summer time March to November	Open Hours Every day March to November
L' Auberge Normande Offers outside dining in the summer	Open Hours Open every day
Le Contour des Marais Also offers outside eating in summer on the pleasure port. Restaurant and snacks.	Open hours Open every day
La Maritza No glam restaurant	Open most days up to 9.30pm
Le Napolitan Pizza and pasta dishes. Check out their regular offers.	Open hours Every day
Pizza/restaurant at the Arcades Check out their menu of the day.	Open hours every day except Sunday and Monday

There are plenty of other restaurants and eateries to explore further a field in Normandy.

Don't forget that if you are visiting a market during the day to try some sausage or pork chops on some French bread, or pop into a patisserie, buy some French bread, cheese and ham with some mouth-watering cakes and enjoy a picnic on a beach with a bottle of wine.

